Comments related to General Activities (Question 2)

The district's Teens Kick Ash Student Press Conference activity was a collaborative effort with our county office of education and our LLA. It included 10 school districts, a local community college paper advisor, and speakers from California Youth Advocacy Network. Though only 100 students were involved in the conference, hundreds of students, teachers, and parents saw their articles and other media pieces.

FNLM was piloted this year at one high school/middle school and was a great success. It will be continued and expanded in the 2010-11 school year.
