Comments regarding question 9:

---

Plan for Red Ribbon Week and Kick Butts activities failed to be implemented related to loss of employee mid year who was organizing these activities. A flash mob at UHS was being planned up ended up doing a Butts Clean Up Day at City park with display of butts, also information handout was made available to the public.

Comments regarding question 14:

Unable to stimulate student interest in youth sting operations. KUSD is working with the Harbor and FNL to keep student interest engaged. American Lung Association and local law enforcement conduct STAKE Act activities in Lake County. The Tobacco Control Program coordinates compliance checks with a new series set for 14/15. TUPE will recruit student to participate in these operations. TUPE students will create digital media around these activities. posting video journalism and art online and in hard copy.

Comments regarding question 17:

KUSD did not collect ethnicity breakdown for students in programs.
