Comments regarding question 2:

We were previously working with Project Alert and TNT (Toward No Drug). Because we received the grant notice late into the academic year, we are in the process of transitioning into the new Botvin LifeSkills program. The program will be in full use in grades 6 through 12.

Comments regarding question 3:

Program implementation began after the award letter was received in February 2011.

Comments regarding question 6:

None

Comments regarding question 7:

Because the TUPE Grant award came late into the 2010-11 school year, leadership students were educated and trained in the implementation and development of prevention activities, which will be fully implemented in the 2011-12 school year.

Comments regarding question 14:

CA & Other: Upon receipt of the grant award letter we convened a local coalition planning meeting comprised of available collaborative members who are listed in our grant application. Collectively we reviewed grant requirements and examined programs slated to be implemented. Later the group met to look at curriculum related to Botvine and Friday Night Live Program. Committee members were also invited to the trainings for Botvin and Friday Night Live programs.
